A Message from your Stewardship Team

- ◆ Congratulations on contributing to the financial health of FUS! Your pledge dollars directly support our vibrant and thought-provoking Sunday mornings, education/music/social justice programming, talented staff, and historic building. With 75% of our expenses being covered by pledge income, it is critical that we stand together as a community in supporting what we treasure about the Society. We've continued to steadily grow our membership so there are more and more of us to carry on our mission of creating a forward-thinking humanism—and to make it financially possible. As you are making your decision on a pledge that feels right to you, we invite you to thoughtfully reflect on what the Society means to you personally. And, of course, if you haven't done so already, please also consider joining your fellow members who currently use direct debit payment as a way to conveniently and consistently support the Society.
- ◆ Thank you very much for your generosity! It takes all of us, together, to create and sustain our FUS home.
